

Dear Takao,

Thank you for the milk and delicious cookies! Great cookie decorating!

Unfortunately I can't solve homelessness but instead I am leaving you some money to donate to a worthy organization that is helping those who are homeless.

Please research and find a good organization.

Please continue to care for your family and community. Be kind to yourself and others AND always wear a mask outside when you're around others.

Love,
Santa